The Parent Stuff

- You do not have to check your children in.
- You DO have to come inside to pick them up.
- Participants will not be able to leave once they are in the building.
- This event will be well supervised. A police officer will be there the ENTIRE time.
 - It will be crazy, but your children will be in a safe environment.
 - Registration is the night of the event (no early registration).
- Registration will be streamlined this time. Returning members will be checked off a list and stamped. We will be registering at 3 computers. It WILL go very quickly!
