

CITY OF NIXA
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
STATE OF MISSOURI

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Nixa recognizes the police officers, firefighters, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, 911 dispatchers, and public works professionals who selflessly serve our community during times of emergency and natural disaster; and

WHEREAS, first responders demonstrate extraordinary courage, dedication, and compassion while protecting the lives and safety of our residents; and

WHEREAS, first responders act quickly in emergencies, often risking their own lives to protect the safety and well-being of others—whether facing natural disasters, accidents, medical crises, or threats to public health and safety; and

WHEREAS, the City of Nixa recognizes the sacrifices made by first responders and their families and appreciates the lasting impact of their service on our community; and

WHEREAS, the City of Nixa is grateful for the commitment, professionalism, and bravery of those who serve as first responders and protect our community each day; and

WHEREAS, the City of Nixa encourages everyone to learn about and stay engaged with the vital contributions of public works, police officers, and other first responders in their communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jarad Giddens, Mayor of the City of Nixa, Missouri, do hereby proclaim October 28th, 2026, as

“First Responders Day”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Nixa, this 26th day of October 2026.
